Welcome to your Wedding Floral Design

OUR STORY & YOUR WEDDING

Five years ago, I set out to build a flower farm that would be accessible to everyone. A big question I faced was: how can I make local luxurious wedding florals available to a variety of brides with differing budgets, tastes, and visions? What I aim to bring to your wedding is a boutique farmhouse floral style with handmade arrangements that highlight the specialty field grown cut flowers from my farm in central Vermont.

New England is famous for exquisite summer cutting gardens, often tended by our mothers, aunts, sisters, cousins and grandmothers. When you come to Blume for wedding flowers, we hope to capture the essence of these heirloom gardeners who came before us- and to treasure your day with the same tradition and love that you would find in your family's cutting garden. In this spirit, we have created an a la carte wedding option. This model helps abbreviate the wedding floral process by avoiding complicated on-site set up or lengthy design planning. The ideal a la carte wedding client is a busy bride who needs personal flowers, small centerpieces or a few focal arrangements. Simply review the available options on our ala carte menu, choose the quantity of desired pieces, describe your color palette, and arrange a pick up date for your flowers.

This option is not complimentary to couples who desire specific floral design, arrangement, flower types/breed, or detailed florals.

With this order form, I hope you can find solace in the transparency of pricing and the clarity of availability. We have simplified the floral process by choosing blooms that will be at the height of ripeness for your wedding day- that means the moment you are getting married you will have the freshest flowers available. With an understanding of your color palette, I will choose the best looking flowers from our field and arrange them to your order specifications.

Orders are available for pick up from the Blume Farm on Rte 7b in North Clarendon, Vermont. Delivery is available for an additional fee. All a la carte wedding orders have a minimum of $500.00

Please enjoy choosing your wedding selections from the following pages, and do not hesitate to reach out with additional questions. And of course, thank you for being a part of my dream to make flowers accessible for all brides.
